

For someone that makes their living on the road and choses to subscribe to a service, it would be unfair to limit public service content such as traffic & weather advisories.